TELLS WHY THE REPUBLICANS ARE IN FAVOR OF EXPANSION.

The Rabid Frothing of the "Yellow Press Compared to the Copperhead Howls Against Stanton-"What Message Will Kansas Send?"

Hundreds of enthusiastic Republicans and members of other parties who thronged the big tent at Huron place, Kansas City, Kas., last night at the Republican raily, cheered J. R. Burton to the echo when he spoke of the war record of the Republican party and eloquently eulogized Secretary Aiger. He made the statement and challenged refutation that the defamations of the conduct of the civil war criticised after it, was over?"

Voices—"He was."

"But Lincoln knew Stanton, and our great president, William McKinley, knows the true, pure character of Secretary Aiger pure character of Secretary Aiger, who sticks to his post and his duty through malignant and traitorous criticism. And as long as McKinley says Alger is all right, I'm going to believe it. (Applause and cries of "We are, too!")

"The war is over. They are now indulging in criticism. Old soldiers, did you hear the conduct of the civil war criticised after it, was over?" lenged refutation that the defamations and slanderous abuse heaped upon the gray head of Secretary Alger by the copperhead opposition and the "yellow" press is far less than that endured by Lincoln's secretary of war. He called upon the old soldiers in the audience to testify and voices replied, "You are right," from all through the crowd.

It was a great night for Kansas City, Kas., Republicans. It was a great night for patriotic citizens. J. R. Burton, the principal speaker, was at his best, and he preached strong Republican American doctrine with convincing directness and showed up the cowardly spirit which animates the critics of the war in their snari-mates the critics of the war in their snarling, yelping effort to create a campaign is-

Silas Porter was chairman of the evening and made a brief address in introducing Mr. Burton. He showed the insincerity of Populistic platforms, pointing out the unfulfilled pledges of the present administration, which is in absolute control of the government. Mr. Burton was greeted with applause when he arose. He said in part:

"There is no contest in Kansas between the Republican and Democratic parties. The contest is between Republicans and Populists. Fusion has wrecked the Democratic party and scattered discontent in its ranka. Fusion, always a curse and a fraud, cheated the Democratic party. It delivered its members bodily to a party to whose principles the Democratic party is diametrically opposed. Fusion is a fraud prepetrated by unscrupulous parties upon voters. It is worse crime against the ballot box than the purchase of votes on the street. I do not mean to charge up this crime against the rank and file of the party. They are innocent and they are the wronged ones. Fusion relies for success entirely upon deception and fraud. It labels Democratic what is not Democratic at all. Why? For the purpose of deceiving voters. Platforms of opposing principles, adopted by parties of opposite history and traditions, support the same candidates—why? To catch votes.

the same candidates—why? To catch votes. Morally speaking, the practice is a crime, whether followed by Populists or Republicans, and I must denounce it."

Mr. Burton does not believe in the excuses offered by the Populists for their unfulfilled piedges. He does not believe that the legislators and the United States senators were bribed. In his opinion, "when they came face to face with possibility of enacting those windy vaporings into law they halted, frightened at their own absurdities, they could not pass their speaker to the Democratic party. He showed the opposing policies of the two parties concerning the issuance of bonds ow under Republican administration the bonds all went to the people of the counsavings from stocking legs and tin cans savings from stocking legs and tin cans and other hiding places. Mr. Burton did not impeach the honesty of Democratic leaders, but he did claim that they did not have the business ability and states-manship of Republican leaders and fin-anciers.

Mr. Burton glowingly described the war history of the Republican party. He traced the vigorous foreign policy of the present administration. He told how Admiral Dewey, under instructions from Washington, had said to the German admiral, Dietrich, who was attempting to interfere with American plans in the Philippines, "If you move your vessels up any farther in the bay I'll fire on you," and the German admiral and the German nation respected the warning.

"And now Governor Leedy says that President McKinley is weak, the president who annexed Hawaii, who carried on a war without precedent for expedition and success, who won the plaudits and respect of other nations, who disobeyed their wishes and made them keep off, who postponed war until he was ready for it, disregarding the fulsome outcries of impatient you and impatient me, who thought we knew, but now know we were mistaken—the president who, with consummate statesmanship, outgeneraled the Spanish diplomats in all the preliminaries, gaining time to buy ships, oreliminaries, gaining time to buy ships ammunition and guns to strengthen our dedeclared one of the Spanish fleets was at ficted With Piles.

Is a strained joint curable? Is local inflammation curable? Of course, if properly treated. So is piles.

People become afflicted with piles and ask some old "chronic" who has always persisted in the wrong treatment and naturally he discourages them by telling them that their case is hopeless.

They in turn discourage others, and thus a disease that can in every case be cured by careful and skiliful handling is allowed to sap the energy of thousands who might free themselves of the trouble in a few days.

Pyramid Pile Cure will cure the most aggravated case of hemorrhoids in an astonishingly short time. It relieves the congested parts, reduces the tumors instantly, no matter how large, allays the inflammation and stops the aching or itching at once. Thousands who have resorted to expensive surgical treatment have been cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure—in a number of instances persons who had spent months in a hospital under a pile spocialist.

It is a remedy that none need fear to apply even to the most agravated, swollen and inflamed hemorrhoidal tumors.

If you are afflicted with this stuborn discase you can master it and maste

He believes it to be part of a teacher's mission to seek to influence the surroundings of children when outside of school, and thinks that the establishment of playgrounds near

He said: "The education provided for the child by the state is limited to months, days and hours, and these again by so many hours a day and so many days of the week for each year.
